A Letter from Elder Ron Spear

Dear friends, prayer partners, and supporters of our ministry. I have grown old in God's service. It has been a long and a wonderful journey. I recall many experiences in Africa as a missionary and the hundreds of places I have seen and preached the great and wonderful messages—the cleansing of the sanctuary message, the three angels' messages, righteousness by faith, victory over all temptation and sin by the power of the Holy Spirit. What a privilege and a blessing God has bestowed upon this frail mortal, Ron Spear. I am now 80 years old and counting, and still travel for the Lord, but as I survey the past, especially the last six months, I am greatly impressed that we are now at the very end of all things and the coming of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. It is time, past time, to put our lives in order and review our stewardship.

“Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?”
2 Corinthians 13:5.

It's Examination Time

Let us be sure that our characters are ready for heaven. Inspiration tells us, “A character formed according to the divine likeness is the only treasure that we can take from this world to the next. Those who are under the instruction of Christ in this world will take every divine attainment with them to the heavenly mansions. And in heaven we are continually to improve. How important, then, is the development of character in this life.

“The heavenly intelligences will work with the human agent who seeks with determined faith that perfection of character which will reach out to perfection in action. To everyone engaged in this work Christ says, I am at your right hand to help you. As the will of man co-operates with the will of God, it becomes omnipotent. Whatever is to be done at His command may be accomplished in His strength. All His biddings are enablings.” Christ's Object Lessons, 332, 333.

How about our stewardship? Are we willing to sacrifice now for the cause of Christ? Heaven has kept a careful account of our stewardship. It has been so easy for all of us to use our credit cards and check books to supply our homes with things of this world, but have we understood that sacrifice and self-denial is a requirement for all of us in our character development? The heavenly Auditor is now going over the accounts. May God be pleased with our willingness to sacrifice for Jesus' sake.

The staff of Hope International is grateful to all of you for your support and prayers in this awesome hour as we come to the close of our probation time and the end of the great controversy.

May God richly bless you as we prepare for our Savior's soon appearing.

Sincerely,

Ron Spear

Spanish Our Firm Foundation

We are so excited about the number of requests we have been receiving! Thank you for your prayers for the success of this endeavor. We felt that we needed to revive the Spanish translation of the Our Firm Foundation magazine, but we did not know that it was missed that sorely. We wish you could see the eyes of people when we go to meetings and let them know that the Spanish translation is available again! We have literally seen tears in people's eyes.

If you know someone who reads Spanish, and would benefit from a truly spiritual magazine, please consider sending him or her a gift subscription to the Spanish version of Our Firm Foundation. If you cannot afford to send them a gift subscription, please send us their names and we will send them a free, three-month, trial subscription. If you could hear the comments that we hear about this magazine, we feel sure that you would put forth every energy to see to it that everyone gets the opportunity to be exposed to the timeless truths that are presented therein.

Thank you again for your prayers, support and efforts to "enlarge the borders" of this magazine. Please know that each one of you is in our daily prayers!

Stocks and Bonds

We have had people with stocks and/or bonds call us and ask if we accept them. We do, and we have an account with T.D. Waterhouse to enable us to sell them and put them to good use.

In the times we now live in, we feel it is imperative to offer an easy way for people to engage in helping to give the last warning message, not only to the world, but to those who are sinking in despair in our own church. If you own stock, or know someone who does and has an interest in finishing the work, please call us or give them our number! 1-800-468-7884. Every dollar invested in the Lord's work will bring "heavenly" rewards!

An Update from

The work is moving forward on the building of a school of the prophets in Portugal. We give all the praise to the Lord! We had a wonderful first camp meeting in Portugal as you can see from the photos above.

The Lord blessed us with beautiful weather. It was so nice, and we ended up being so crowded, that we decided to hold the meetings outside. The people were very responsive and told us repeatedly how happy they were that Hope International was there and that we would have a school that follows the Bible and Spirit of Prophecy.

Everyone was very impressed with how much was done and how far we had come in so little time. Between meetings, many people walked the grounds and basked in the sunshine and gloried in what they believe will be a powerful witness for the Lord. We also had several people volunteer their services. They want to see this project move forward as much as we do!

We have prayed earnestly and have felt the Lord lead us to ask Tony Morais to be the school's administrator. He and his wife Celeste, both Portuguese, are very excited about this new venture and bring many talents that the Lord has blessed them with. Tony has been a pastor, medical missionary, soldier and administrator of his own health clinic. Celeste has an ability matched by few in the area of cookery, crafts and translation. They have already translated their first Our Firm Foundation magazine into Portu-guess, and have started on one of Ron Spear's books. There is a two-fold blessing here, as we can now send the magazine into Portuguese speaking countries besides Portugal. We were amazed to discover just how many countries have Portuguese as their main language!

As we continue to move in the light of God's leading, we earnestly ask for your prayers. It is impossible to do this work correctly without the blessing of God and we are told that "the effectual fervent prayers of a righteous man availeth much" James 5:16. We want you to know how important we believe it is for you to keep this ministry, and specifically this work, in your prayers.

Please let us thank you in advance for your supplications in our behalf!

Would you like more information about the Terra Nova project?

We welcome all support for this exciting endeavor in Portugal. Please consider if the Lord would have you support it financially or with volunteer time.

Growth Required

"Of every Christian the Lord requires growth in efficiency and capability in every line. Christ has paid us our wages, even His own blood and suffering, to secure our willing service. He came to our world to give us an example of how we should work."

Christ's Object Lessons, 331.

The Last Written Words

Have you ever wondered what the last written information from the Lord's prophet might have been? Did you ever ask yourself, If this was the last time I could ever reach the church, and I had an opportunity, what would I write?

Actually, we have the very last written testimony of Sister White and it is reprinted here in its entirety. Keep in mind, God well knew that this was to be the last testimony that would ever be written by His prophet. So, in essence, this was the last written testimony that God has given to us, at least to this point.

So, as you read this short testimony, try to look at it as the last thing that God was trying to convey through His prophet to each one of us.

The Victorious Life

Sanitarium, California, June 14, 1914.

Dear Friend:

The Lord has given me a message for you, and not for you only, but also for other faithful souls who are troubled by doubts and fears regarding their acceptance by the Lord Jesus Christ. His word to you is, "Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art Mine." You desire to please the Lord, and you can do this by believing His promises. He is waiting to take you into a harbor of gracious experience, and He bids you, "Be still, and know that I am God." You have had a time of unrest; but Jesus says to you, "Come unto Me, . . . and I will give you rest." The joy of Christ in the soul is worth everything. "Then are they glad," because they are privileged to rest in the arms of everlasting love.

Put away your distrust of our heavenly Father. Instead of talking of your doubts, break away from them in the strength of Jesus, and let light shine into your soul by letting your voice express confidence and trust in God. I know that the Lord is very nigh to give you victory, and I say to you, Be helped, be strengthened, be lifted out of and away from the dark dungeon of unbelief. Doubts will rush into your mind, because Satan is trying to hold you in captivity to his cruel power; but face him in the strength that Jesus is willing to give you, and conquer the inclination to express unbelief in your Saviour.

Do not talk of your inefficiency and your defects. When despair would seem to be sweeping over your soul, look to Jesus, saying, He lives to make intercession for me. Forget the things that are behind, and believe the promise, "I will come to you," and "abide with you."

God is waiting to bestow the blessing of forgiveness, of pardon for iniquity, of the gifts of righteousness, upon all who will believe in His love and accept the salvation He offers. Christ is ready to say to the repenting sinner, "Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment." The blood of Jesus Christ is the eloquent plea that speaks in behalf of sinners. This blood "cleanseth us from all sin."

It is your privilege to trust in the love of Jesus for salvation, in the fullest, surest, noblest manner; to say, He loves me, He receives me; I will trust Him, for He gave His life for me. Nothing so dispels doubt as coming in contact with the character of Christ. He declares, "Him that cometh to Me I will in no wise cast out;" that is, there is no possibility of My casting him out, for I have pledged My word to receive him. Take Christ at His word, and let your lips declare that you have gained the victory.

Is Jesus true? Does He mean what He says? Answer decidedly, Yes, every word. Then if you have settled this, by faith claim every promise that He has made, and receive the blessing; for this acceptance by faith gives life to the soul. You may believe that Jesus is true to you, even though you feel yourself to be the weakest and most unworthy of His children. And as you believe, all your dark, brooding doubts are thrown back upon the archdeceiver who originated them. You can be a great blessing if you will take God at His word. By living faith you are to trust Him, even though the impulse is strong within you to speak words of distrust.

Peace comes with dependence on divine power. As fast as the soul resolves to act in accordance with the light given, the Holy Spirit gives more light and strength. The grace of the Spirit is supplied to cooperate with the soul's resolve, but it is not a substitute for the individual exercise of faith. Success in the Christian life depends upon the appropriation of the light that God has given. It is not an abundance of light and evidence that makes the soul free in Christ; it is the rising of the powers and the will and the energies of the soul to cry out sincerely, "Lord, I believe; help Thou mine unbelief."

I rejoice in the bright prospects of the future, and so may you. Be cheerful, and praise the Lord for His loving-kindness. That which you cannot understand, commit to Him. He loves you and pities your every weakness. He "hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ." It would not satisfy the heart of the Infinite One to give those who love His Son a lesser blessing than He gives His Son.

Satan seeks to draw our minds away from the mighty Helper, to lead us to ponder over our degeneration of soul. But though Jesus sees the guilt of the past, He speaks pardon; and we should not dishonor Him by doubting His love. The feeling of guiltiness must be laid at the foot of the cross, or it will poison the springs of life. When Satan thrusts his threatenings upon you, turn from them, and comfort your soul with the promises of God. The cloud may be dark in itself, but when filled with the light of heaven, it turns to the brightness of gold; for the glory of God rests upon it.

God's children are not to be subject to feelings and emotions. When they fluctuate between hope and fear, the heart of Christ is hurt; for He has given them unmistakable evidence of His love. He wants them to be established, strengthened, and settled in the most holy faith. He wants them to do the work He has given them; then their hearts will become in His hands as sacred harps, every chord of which will send forth praise and thanksgiving to the One sent by God to take away the sins of the world.

Christ's love for His children is as tender as it is strong. And it is stronger than death; for He died to purchase our salvation, and to make us one with Him, mystically and eternally one. So strong is His love that it controls all His powers, and employs the vast resources of heaven in doing His people good. It is without variable-ness or shadow of turning—the same yesterday, today, and forever. Although sin has existed for ages, trying to counteract this love and obstruct its flowing earthward, it still flows in rich currents to those for whom Christ died.

God loves the sinless angels, who do His service and are obedient to all His commands; but He does not give them grace; they have never needed it, for they have never sinned. Grace is an attribute shown to undeserving human beings. We did not seek after it; it was sent in search of us. God rejoices to bestow grace upon all who hunger and thirst for it, not because we are worthy, but because we are unworthy. Our need is the qualification which gives us the assurance that we shall receive the gift.

It should not be difficult to remember that the Lord desires you to lay your troubles and perplexities at His feet, and leave them there. Go to Him, saying: “Lord, my burdens are too heavy for me to carry. Wilt Thou bear them for me?” And He will answer: “I will take them. ‘With everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee.’ I will take your sins, and will give you peace. Banish no longer your self-respect; for I have bought you with the price of My own blood. You are Mine. Your weakened will I will strengthen. Your remorse for sin I will remove.”

“I, even I, am He,” the Lord declares, “that blotteth out thy transgressions for Mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins. Put Me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified.” “I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth: I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye Me in vain: I the Lord speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.” “Look unto Me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.” Respond to the calls of God’s mercy, and say: “I will trust in the Lord and be comforted. I will praise the Lord; for His anger is turned away. I will rejoice in God, who gives the victory.”

How Can We Reach Them?

To those who have been long subscribers to the magazine, it may seem redundant to repeat requests for addresses to send the magazine to, but we are including new subscribers (praise God) all the time. There are so many who need the soul saving truths of our Savior presented in a loving, compassionate, yet righteous and just way. We are doing all we know to do to reach our brethren, but we need your help.

Each one of you who get this newsletter has friends, church members, co-workers, etc. that need spiritual encouragement and support. Jesus is about to come, are they ready? Is what they feed on preparing them for that soon coming event? Are they prepared for the overpowering delusion that is being prepared by the devil and his angels?

We have a magazine that, we feel, will help prepare them for that time. We have meetings that will encourage, warn and uplift. We have books that will clearly define what is coming and how to be prepared. What we need is your help to reach as many souls as we can before the Lord throws down the center in heaven!

We need the addresses of each person you care about. If you have a church directory, send it to us, and we will copy it and send it back. If you are uncomfortable with that, write the names down yourself and send them in. Each name represents a soul to be warned, prepared and saved! Please take the time to send us every name you know. We will send them the magazine for free for three months and they will get the newsletter for free also.

Aren't we too close to the end of all things to take a chance? Do we dare not give them an opportunity to hear and read things they might not be hearing or reading? Will we want to stand before them in the judgment and say we didn't want to offend?

We would like to relate an incident that happened just recently. A woman called to say she had received the Our Firm Foundation magazine several years before and had thrown it in the trash. She said she literally picked the magazine up with her thumb and forefinger and tossed it out! She was sent the magazine again, (probably from an interested friend who sent in her name), and as she began to throw it away again, she saw on the cover, an article that intrigued her. She read the article and then the whole magazine! She found it to be exactly what she and her church needed because of all the craziness going on now in the churches. She then ordered 88 gift subscriptions! Never underestimate the power of the written word!

Please, take the time and interest to send us names and addresses so we can try to reach them for the Lord. May it be written down that you did all you could to try to reach those within your sphere of influence.

“There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty. The liberal soul shall be made fat: and he that watereth shall be watered also himself.” Proverbs 11:24, 25.

Golf Cart Debt Fully Paid!

Once again, the Lord is to be praised! His faithful stewards have made it possible for us to pay off the debt for the golf cart that the maintenance staff use, and that is used for helping those who need assistance to get around. As we mentioned in our last newsletter, it was such a blessing at the last camp meeting to be able to offer help to those who don't walk as well as they used to.

We want to extend a special thank you to all those who have felt the desire to help us on this special project. So often, people merely change what their gifts are designated for, but several of you made additional sacrifices to make this possible and we are very humbled and eternally grateful.

As we meet for worship each morning, we make it a matter of prayer to thank God for each person's interest and support of this ministry, and always make supplication for each prayer request. Thank you again for your help in this special area of need.

of Hope International

J.C. Perozo

J.C. Perozo is a Bible expositor and ministry consultant. He received his Master of Divinity degree from the Theological Seminary of Andrews University in 1973.

After four years of pastoral evangelism in New York, he was ordained to the gospel ministry. From there he went abroad and served as a departmental director, university teacher, and chaplain in two of our church's overseas divisions. He returned to the United States in 1988 and received a pastoral assignment in California.

In 1996, he accepted an invitation to become chairman of the Religion Department of Hartland College. He is presently the assistant to the president of Hartland Institute of Health and Education.

In his 31 years of ministry, Elder Perozo has visited 38 countries in five continents. He sees the world as a vast hospital and our Savior Jesus as the healing physician that is willing to work through us to bring restoration.

Giving to God or to Man?

Each one of us is aware of the counsel in the Bible and Spirit of Prophecy about giving tithes and offerings. We try to be faithful in giving our means to help finish God's work. Are you aware that many believers have consciously or unconsciously made the decision to give much of our worldly goods to the government or to unbelieving relatives to do with as they please?

In Testimonies for the Church, vol. 4, 476 we are told, "Here is a man with God's money or property in his hands. He is about to change his stewardship. Will he place the means, which God has lent him to be used in His cause, in the hands of wicked men, just because they are his relatives? ... The Lord would have His followers dispense their means while they can do it themselves."

To help those who would like to follow God's counsel, Hope International is beginning a program to offer our supporters the opportunity to remember God's work in their wills, trusts and annuities. If you would like more information on these programs please drop us a note or give us a call at 1-800-468-7884. Thank you for your consideration of these valuable tools to help finish the work of the Lord!

Tithe

Hope International does not solicit tithes, however we are a tithe-worthy organization and accept tithes. We use the tithe only for the gospel ministry. Donations designated "Gospel Ministry" will be considered tithe.

Miracles Of Hope

By George Gomoll, Director of Development

One of my favorite stories from Seventh-day Adventist history is when Joseph Bates told his wife, “The Lord will provide,” when their food and money were almost gone. The Lord did provide for them, and He is still working His miracles today.

We here at Hope International heat our homes primarily with wood. This is a less costly way of heating and provides us a healthy way to exercise. The problem has been having enough time to saw and split the wood. As you can imagine, there is no one working at Hope International who works just an eight-hour day!

On a trip to town, I went by a house where a man was cutting down a tree and stacking the wood. I asked if he had any use for the wood. He said he had promised some of it to a friend but that there would be more than enough for me also. As we got to know each other Fred began calling me quite regularly and asking if I needed wood. I always replied that we could use wood. Fred would cut the wood to the exact size we needed and many times delivered and unloaded it at our homes! All we had to do was split it, if necessary, and stack it.

So far Fred has delivered enough wood to heat one and a half homes next winter. If we had purchased this wood it would have cost us nearly $700. Surely the Lord knew our needs and has provided a good friend to help supply them.

For more miracle stories order our new videotape, “God’s Miracles at Hope International.” Call 1-800-468-7884.

A Love Stronger than Death

“Christ’s love for His children is as tender as it is strong. And it is stronger than death; for He died to purchase our salvation, and to make us one with Him, mystically and eternally one. So strong is His love that it controls all His powers, and employs the vast resources of heaven in doing His people good. It is without variableness or shadow of turning—the same yesterday, today, and forever. Although sin has existed for ages, trying to counteract this love and obstruct its flowing earthward, it still flows in rich currents to those for whom Christ died.” Testimonies to Ministers, 519.

Because the returning of tithes and offerings is a salvation issue, the authors believe it is now necessary to present the essence of their long-time study of this theme which is so little understood by God's people. This conviction has been greatly strengthened by the increasing reports around the world of faithful tithe-payers being removed from church office or, in some cases, disfellowshipped because they felt called to return their tithe to faithful self-supporting ministries.

It is our desire that those who read this book will do so with a Christ-like Spirit. It is a study of utmost significance to the converted believer.
